

4. We saw Sidney at the shore.
pron. v. n. prep. adj. n.
subj.

5. Two little chickens were always noisy.
adj. adj. n. v. adv. adj.
subj.

6. Well, the chickens charged the beagle.
interj. adj. n. v. adj. n.
subj.

7. Three chickens quickly ate bananas.
adj. n. adv. v. n.
subj.

8. He never had a blue broom.
pron. adv. v. adj. adj. n.
subj.

9. Poodle zoomed toward the mountain.
n. v. prep. adj. n.
subj.

10. Sidney liked wide spaces.
n. v. adj. n.
subj.

Act One: Subject (subj.) Practice Problems

Here are some sentences for you to try. Write the part of speech of each word under the sentence, and write subj. under the subject of the sentence.

1. No, Poodle saw the mountain.

2. Poodle spoke next.

3. Sidney jumped on the ice.

4. They heard Dickinson on the peak.

5. Then they climbed up the mountain.

6. Well, the little beagle barked at night.

7. Poodle soon saw clouds at the top.

8. Sidney was a speedy snail.

9. We followed the sound to the top.

10. The angry wind threw snow everywhere.