

7. Poodle      was      one      tired      chicken.
       n.            v.        adj.      adj.            n.
       subj.      LVP                                    S.C.

8. Dickinson      was      terribly      blue      then.
       n.            v.        adv.        adj.        adv.
       subj.      LVP                                    S.C.

9. Dickinson      grabbed      snow      on      the      peak.
       n.            v.        n.      prep.    adj.      n.
       subj.      AVP                                    D.O.

10. Poodle      was      the      last      climber.
       n.            v.        adj.      adj.            n.
       subj.      LVP                                    S.C.

Act Five: Subject Complement (S.C.) Practice Problems

1. Several pilgrims approached the mountain.
2. Dickinson is a loud monster.
3. Gramlet jumped from the boulder.
4. Poodle lost his favorite biscuit.
5. Yes, five winds blasted him first.