

For each sentence, choose the best answer.

10. In "The blue monster with the grape jumped," the object of the preposition is a(n):
 - a. noun
 - b. adverb
 - c. adjective
 - d. pronoun
11. In "The dog ran with him again," the object of the preposition is a(n):
 - a. adjective
 - b. adverb
 - c. pronoun
 - d. noun
12. In "Seven furry rabbits hid in the grass today," the subject/verb pair is:
 - a. Seven/rabbits
 - b. rabbits/hid
 - c. in/grass
 - d. rabbits/grass
13. In "The snack at nap time was sandwiches," the subject/verb pair is:
 - a. snack/was
 - b. snack/sandwiches
 - d. at/nap
 - a. nap/sandwiches

14. In "The mountain rose above the town," the preposition shows a relationship of:
 - a. time
 - b. space
 - c. possession
 - d. direction
15. In "Two scratchy bugs crawled toward the frog," the preposition shows a relationship of:
 - a. space
 - b. time
 - c. similarity
 - d. direction
16. In "At the start, the monster growled loudly," the prepositional phrase acts as an:
 - a. adjective
 - b. adverb
17. In "Poodle saw the monster on the dune," the prepositional phrase acts as an:
 - a. adjective
 - b. adverb
18. In "Sidney raced across the plane," the prepositional phrase acts as an:
 - a. adjective
 - b. adverb

Royal Fineworks Press

9 780880 929806