

Act Five Practice Clauses

For each sentence, identify whether it contains one clause or two, and underline the subject and predicate of each clause.

1. The other one found the squirrel.
2. Yes, eventually he ate the salad.
3. He jumped, she laughed, and Joe clicked next.
4. When Joe asked, Dickinson spoke loudly.
5. From now on, the old monster sleeps.
6. Poodle has two friends in the storm.
7. Maybe paused, and Bizzie ran backstage.
8. Burgull said, "Gurbrkrrrbr!"
9. Bizzie laughed when Poodle said that.
10. Maybe asked Poodle for a sandwich.

Final Quiz

Identify whether each group of words is a clause or not.

1. Suddenly finding the rusty gate at the curve.
2. Suddenly he closed the rusty gate at the curve.
3. With great force, Burgull closed the gate.
4. When Burgull quickly closed the rusty gate,
5. Burgull, in a burst of loud enthusiasm.
6. Even Burgull needed sauce with his sandwich.
7. Burgull's sandwich with cheese and sauce.
8. From the start of the season, the white gulls.
9. Did Burgull eat the green bug?
10. Why did Burgull always eat the green bugs?