

With a linking verb, the subject is not doing something to something else.

Now the subject IS the other thing!

The open sea is a big place.