

Sentences can say great things
because verbs can do great things.

1. ACTION verbs show action:

The lizard ATE the cabbage.

2. LINKING verbs make equations:

The lizard IS an iguana.

We will let AVP stand for action verb predicate and LVP stand for linking verb predicate.