

The Grammar Island Story Maker

Circle one item in each column, and try to make a sentence! Then use this as the first sentence of a little story! Change lines after each choice. You are free to make a story that is funny, to use your imagination, and to invent something that could never happen in real life. Have fun.

prep. phrase	n.	ACTION v.	dir. obj.	prep. phrase
From the rocks	birds	ate	bugs	to the waves.
In the water	lizards	saw	waves	for the beach.
Under the log	frogs	sang	leaves	around the island.
Over the clouds	fish	smelled	songs	over the clouds.

prep. phrase	n.	LINKING v.	subj. comp.	prep. phrase
From the start	fish	are	good	on the beach.
In the end	chickens	were	goofy	under the water.
In large groups	opossums	are	funny	in the sky.
During the rain	birds	were	sandy	in the trees.