

Every one of our ideas,
every sentence, has TWO SIDES:

what it is about and
what we are saying about it.

See the two sides of this sentence?

What it is about:

The shady trees

What we are saying:

lined the street.

