

VERB TENSE

Because people live in time,
our verbs change to show time.

This is called verb tense.

Some tenses use helping verbs with main verbs.

The six verb tenses are:

Present tense:

Jacob walks to work.

Past tense:

Jacob walked to work.

Future tense:

Jacob will walk to work.

Present perfect tense:

Jacob has walked to work.

Past perfect tense:

Jacob had walked to work.

Future perfect tense:

Jacob will have walked to work.
