

Here are sentences that contain nouns,
pronouns, adjectives, verbs, or adverbs.

Can you find them?

The old castle finally collapsed.
adj. adj. n. adv. v.

The Roman aqueduct has many arches.

The venerable mayor spoke next.

He wore a white hat at the bakery.

Two trains pulled away from the station.

The hills undulated very gently over the valley.

The clever squirrel crept furtively behind the bench.

The heat began to abate from the streets.

A serene calm pervaded the morning.