

Identify the Compound

For each sentence tell what other part of speech the coordinating conjunction joins into a compound.

Example: He and she waved. pronouns

In this example the coordinating conjunction and makes a compound pronoun with he and she.

1. The mayor was tall and handsome. _____
2. Jane walked and read all weekend. _____
3. Emily and James walked to the cinema. _____
4. Murphy wrote quickly and neatly. _____
5. The snow and sleet fell all day. _____
6. The shop was old but clean. _____
7. Pigeons flapped and walked around. _____
8. We took a break for cookies and juice. _____
9. There were no cars or cabs there. _____
10. The hills were blue and rolling. _____
11. Maria could pass and punt well. _____
12. Michael loved fish and cheese. _____
13. Andre either ran or swam every day. _____
14. The wind roared and whirled in the trees. _____
15. The owls and crickets sang all night. _____