

Identify the Conjunction

For each sentence
tell what kind of conjunction you see:
coordinating or subordinating.
There are other kinds of conjunctions,
but we are studying those two.

1. Edward and Susan walked home. _____
2. Jane laughed as we arrived. _____
3. When you leave, take the dog. _____
4. Murphy wrote quickly but neatly. _____
5. I want a puppy or a kitten. _____
6. It has been closed since the flood came. _____
7. If you want cookies, I will get some. _____
8. We laughed, yet no one cared. _____
9. I knew, so I remained silent. _____
10. Because I knew, I remained silent. _____
11. As the snow fell, we sat by the fire. _____
12. Michael loved fish and cheese. _____
13. Andre either ran or swam every day. _____
14. The wind roared, but we were safe. _____
15. We heard owls or crickets singing. _____