

The Eight Parts of Speech

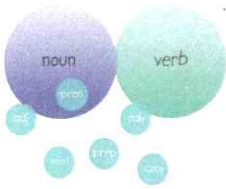

There are only
eight kinds of words!
Only eight!

These eight kinds of words
are called
the eight parts of speech.

Our language is made of only these eight kinds of parts.

Here are the names
of the eight kinds of words:

noun pronoun adjective
verb adverb
preposition conjunction interjection

But here is a secret:
even though there are
eight kinds of words,
there are only TWO
main kinds of words,
and the other six
help support the main two.

That is really easy.

The two main kinds of words
are the NOUN
and the VERB,
and the other six kinds of words
help the noun and verb
do their jobs.

Who would imagine that we say everything with only two main kinds of words?
