

For the following sentences, please solve the first three levels of grammar.

1. Watching the grotesque spectacle, Crane began again.

2. Crane described the genial soldier, sharply grimacing.

3. To describe the poignant scene was a challenge for Crane.

4. Crane's protagonist, an inexperienced boy, was haggard.
